

The municipal day camp

Municipal day camp offers to its customers (5 to 12) a reception structure adapted to its needs and programming to recreational and educational character without accommodation. The participants are received by supervised students who mentor and to present a program of summer activities offered by the municipality. During open hours, the day camp offers a complete customer support.

Day camp meets the reality of today's families, allowing them to keep a job during the summer and/or offer a maximum of stimulation to their child. Municipal day camp meets the need for entertainment and pleasure of the child. Its safe and framed structure meets the need of personal development and socialization.
